Dr Russell Crawford

Director of Learning & Teaching

Falmouth University

National Teaching Fellow 2018

2020/21 – what a year we've had!

---

- A year of skills – new ones, old ones, digital, social, cognitive
- Learning about communities – change, challenge, growth and opportunity
- Growth mindsets – we did it! Weathered isolation, adaptation, lack of WiFi, lack of toilet tissue!
- It's all been “Active Learning” – time for some meta-level reflection?
- New lenses on old challenges – wellbeing, inclusivity, diversity, employability and many more...

To start us off.....a Falmouth approach to

Digitally Enhanced Learning & Teaching

- Redefined blended learning → Digitally Enhanced Learning approach for 21/22 and onwards
- Clear emphasis on both F2F and synchronous activities

Blended Facet	Average	Maximum	Minimum
Face-to-Face	32%	60%	20%
Synchronous	32%	50%	20%
Asynchronous	16%	40%	10%
Directed	20%	25%	10%

Structured Blended Learning Activities

Some quick L&T highlights that back this up...

- The Falmouth “Pracademic” – our maker-culture as a pedagogic identity
- Focus: Communities of practice – networks, expertise and support
- Our Pedagogic Palette – flexible and personal approach to L&T
- Launch of Falmouth Online
- Institutional approach to formative feedback →
- Whole curriculum reform and two “common” modules

Our Spaces Pilots

- L&T collaboration spaces and booths
- Careful approach – PEDAGOGY FIRST!
- Hybrid working, hybrid practice!

Themes from today...

- Strategy and a “pedagogy first” ethos at play
- Reflection and Transformation
- Effectiveness – in-person interactions, integration
- Embedding and Innovation
- Rigor, Quality and Continuous Improvement
- NETWORKING (old school aim, new school method!)
- Academic Development and CPD
- Wellbeing and Culture

Questions to consider today...

BIG PICTURE – where are you on these themes?

TAKEAWAY – What 3 things could I take and use?

NETWORK – Whom would I like to chat more to?

IMPACT – You gave the time, how to make it count?

Ask Questions (it shows respect) and use the “chat” function (because...why not!)
