

Talia Adams, Vice President Education

Collaborating between Student Unions and Universities to Better Represent the Student Voice

Partnership working between the SU and the university: Enabling student input in curriculum development

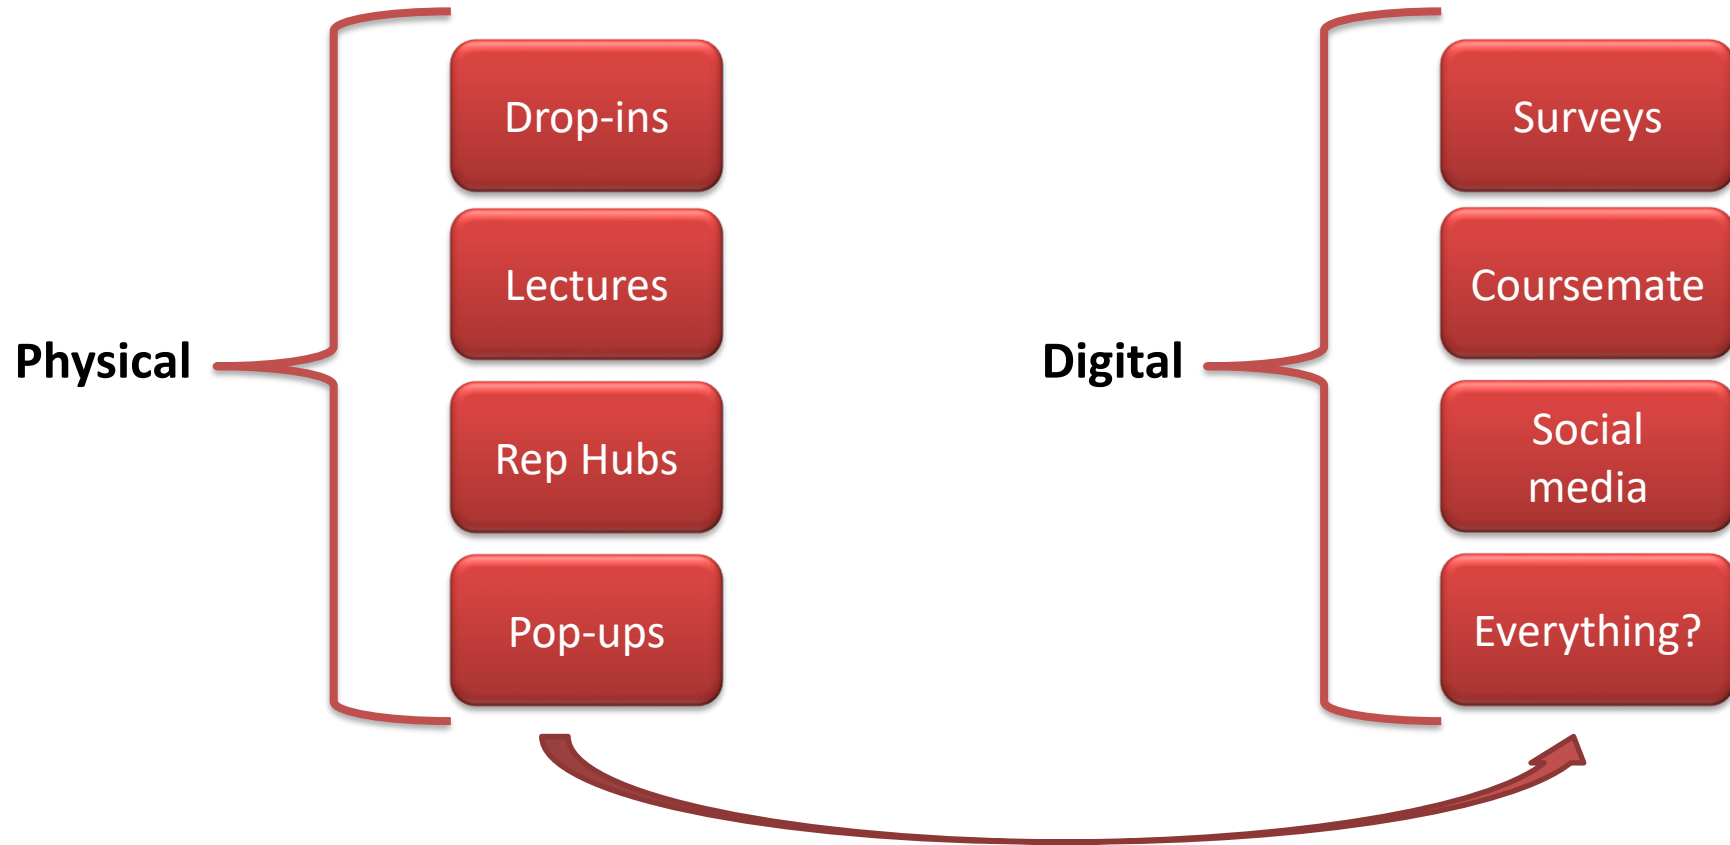

Importance of Academic Reps in University meetings

Recognising the value of student feedback

Allowing feedback to be integrated into multiple settings

Encouraging varied forms of feedback: physical and digital methods

Using the SU's resources to campaign on issues that matter to students

